IMP AG is an independent asset management company characterized by its entrepreneurial-driven culture. The company is licensed and regulated as an asset manager company by the Financial Markets Authority in Liechtenstein. The major pillars of our organizational culture are based on the overarching principles of regular communication, consistent transparency, the maintenance of high ethical standards, and professional integrity.

We strive to achieve the best results attainable for our client base by providing utmost flexibility, efficient decision making, and by focusing on performance-based goals. We provide discretionary asset management services, interactive investment advisory as well as in-house fund management for UHNW entrepreneurial individuals and influential families, family businesses as well as family offices.

IMP Global Megatrend Umbrella Fund

31.03.2024

Investment Objective and Investment Policy

---

The investment objective aims to generate a long-term, above average return. Therefore, in principle global direct and indirect investments in securities of listed companies are made. Shares as well as bonus and participation certificates are especially considered as securities. Indirect investments are particularly done via funds and ETFs. Investments will be made in the USA, Asia and Europe. At the same time, investments in other selected markets can be carried out.
